

WESLI GRADUATES HAVE TAUGHT IN OVER 45 COUNTRIES!

"My experience at WESLI gave me the confidence that I would be successful in Japan."

- MICHAEL GAIL

"Since graduation, I've been working in Brazil and the practice teaching I did during the course prepared me for what I am facing now."

- GEORGE DUCHOW

"WESLI not only taught me how to teach, they also helped me with finding a job in Europe by showing me where best to look and giving me help on presenting myself and conducting a job interview."

- ORTY ORTWEIN

"I am teaching ESL at a school in Phoenix. The things I learned at WESLI were instrumental in my getting this job."

- PAM NIESL

WTTP IS HIGH QUALITY

We have over 30 years experience teaching ESL, and over 15 years experience training ESL teachers. Our 130-hour program, including practice teaching and observing professional teachers, provides far more than the average one-month certificate program. Experienced ESL teachers observe your practice teaching and offer constructive feedback, helping you to develop your skills and feel confident in the classroom.

WTTP IS WELCOMING

WESLI's international students are eager to interact with you, and offer a cross-cultural learning experience right in the heart of Madison, Wisconsin. WTTP graduates have ranged in age from 20-65 and have had many different goals, yet all shared an interest in cross-cultural communication and international travel.
