Seville is among the most popular cities of Europe for international

Students and travellers: one of the best preserved and colourfully architectural old town centres in the world. Seville is a journey through several centuries and cultures at a time: Moorish elegance, Roman refinement, Gypsy spirit...

Seville would not be what it is without one key element: los sevillanos, warm and welcoming people that know, like no other Spanish people, how to keep traditions that embody the essence of the Spanish way of life and take on the best of the modern times and trends.

Cádiz is one of the last corners of Spain to be discovered by travellers and foreigners looking for a taste of the genuine Andalusia.

Cádiz is a Peninsula scattered with white sandy beaches and promenades. The coast, preserved from the tourism boom, offers outstanding, unspoiled beaches. It has become the destination of choice for those looking for authenticity and lively activities.

Cadiz also offers some astonishing sunsets from some of the best beach bars in the South of Europe. The centre has preserved its exoticism and charm and Gaditanos are regarded as people with great sense of humour.
